

Ponds

Duxbury Clipper

Wednesday, June 30, 1999

WEEDS-BE-GONE - A Weed Harvester cleans out Island Creek Pond and drops the unwanted plants on the shore. The Weed Harvester will be working in Island Creek Pond for another week. The removal of the weeds is a part of a state grant project in which Island Creek Pond will be cleaned and then experimental ground cover will be planted on the bottom of the pond that will hopefully grow to provide a small carpet through which larger weeds cannot grow.